Week of September 14-17

Classroom Spotlight

Classroom Behavior: We are having some listening problems in the classroom. If your child is coming home with cube numbers less than 4, please review the whole body listening attachment with your child. It is important for all students to have successful learning days. We are having many interruptions, causing instructional time and student practice to be interrupted. I appreciate your support in teaming up with me to help us have a successful learning year.

Rock Star of the Week will begin on September 14th. I will model being the "Rock Star" for the first week. A student schedule will come home soon.

Rock Stars Itinerary:

Monday: You'll be sharing your "Rock Star" profile sheet on center stage.

Tuesday: Bring in 4 of your favorite photos captured by the paparazzi to share with your fans!

Wednesday: Show-n-Tell-Bring in one of your favorite treasures to share with your groupies.

Thursday: Photo Shoot! Look your best because you'll be walking the red carpet for these glamor shots.

Friday: Bring in your biggest fan. On this day you will have a special guest come visit our classroom. Your visitor has a limited amount of time to brag about you, tell us about themselves and share a fun game with the class. Unable to make an appearance: Send in your child's favorite book and I'll read it to the class.
